TRIUMPHANT

Calla L. Harcourt

"Poets sing too much of sorrow;
Earth has had its fill of woe.
I would sing"—thus said a poet—
"Something bright before I go.
I would sing a song triumphant
Over trouble, sin and doubt;
Just a song of perfect gladness,
With Life's sorrows all left out.

Brave was he and ever thoughtful,
Hiding deep within his breast
His own troubles, that no echo
Might increase the world's unrest.
As saints give themselves to Heaven
Did he consecrate his powers
To the finding of bright pathways
Through this dull old world of ours.

Love and Springtime, Hope and Heaven,
Each in turn became his theme;
While the purest mirth ran rippling
Through the music of his dream;
Hopes of two worlds intermingling
Were throughout his verses strewn,
Twining with Celestial lilies
Roses from the heart of June.

To the Gospel of Pure Gladness
Did he give his life, Alas!
Always when the dream was brightest
Some faint shadow seemed to pass;
When the music seemed the merriest
Then some minor marred the joy,

And the garland next perfection
Held some thorn to still annoy.

Still he sang on, hopeful ever,
Whispering with his dying breath:
"I shall sing my song triumphant
On the other side of death."
Watchers round his pillow fancied
When he joined the shining throng
That his brave and sunny spirit
Sang at last Joy's Perfect Song.

THE UNIVERSAL POWER.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Instead of matter being the Universal Power, it is just the reverse; it eternally operates to pull the Universe to pieces. Its operation may be likened to the conduct of an unruly child, whose parents over-rule it against its will.

Gravitation is the negative evil principle; the Devil of human superstition. Spirit is just the opposite of the Devil principle; the positive God Force that saves and preserves. The Celestial Life is an upward attraction in every force of matter. The bodily re-appearance of Jesus was an imitation of Immortal Life in the mask of death. It was the only way the lower human consciousness, not quickened out of devil-matter perception, could be reached, and now after the slow growth of eighteen centuries from the planting of the hidden germ, the true consciousness is just beginning to unfold; it is just beginning to be realized that the consciousness must live above the negative force of gravity, before the positive law of Life, or the attractive upward principle, instead of the downward pulling principle, can operate to free the matter-imprisoned soul, so that it may mingle with the Universe, and become awakened to its Divine nature as a part of the Eternal Verities. The Celestial Life is dominant over the material existence, just as the force that directs the planet in towards the sun dominates the opposing force, that would carry it off into the abysmal depths.

The Animal Man will soon abdicate to the Divine Human.

PSYCHIC MANIFESTATION.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory.

I was standing at the window watching the neighbors' children at play when I heard the telephone calling, and when I answered it, a voice said: "This is Mrs. Prescott. Will you come to 193 Sixth Street; I want to see you so much, and I do not know where to go to find you, and I must take the eighty-four car for home."

I put my wraps on and walked down to 193 Sixth Street, where I had lived for several years, and then found the lady who had called me. She saw me coming, and ran down the steps to meet me, and she was so delighted that the tears of joy came to her eyes. She was ready for the train, and she said: "Let us sit here on the steps. I have ten minutes to spare." And we sat down, and she put her arms around me and kissed me many times, and she said: "You don't know how I have longed to see you. I love my home in California. If I could just have you there I would be complete." She was speaking of her daughter when she said it was time for her to be going. So I went with her and helped her on the street-car that took her to the depot. Again she put her arms around me and gave me at least a half-dozen kisses, and as she stepped aboard the car she threw me a kiss. And as I looked at her going from me the thought came: "The next time we meet we will be born of the spirit." And I walked back to my home, removed my wraps, and looked out of the window for the children, but they had all disappeared.

Now I walked to the place that Mrs. Prescott had asked me to come to. I met this old friend, talked with her, saw her on the car, and walked from Sixth and Taylor Streets back to Sixteenth and Morrison, and all the time I was as conscious—as much myself—as I am this moment. But my friend was not there in the flesh, and I cannot prove that I was there, but in every particular the whole occurrence, from the telephone call until I was back in my home again was as real as any part of my life. One thing is certain, I had my wraps on and I came in the door from the street, for I had to ring to get in, and the door was opened. What was it?

Life is the Eternal Problem.

NEWLY DISCOVERED FORCE.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

In the last Soul Communion it was manifested to me that the New God Force or Psychic Energy—new in the sense that it is now manifesting to the consciousness of Humanity for the first time—is beginning to be felt and understood by many scattered throughout all the nations. They comprehend the Truth by feeling it, to the extent that worldly motives are involved. Such as the desire to acquire material wealth, or become personally famed as a founder or promoter of new systems of culture.

That the ethical schools of latest development stand far in advance of the old ecclesiasticisms is true, but even the most advanced of these are forging on to higher and truer psychical conditions, in the heat and glare of which they will dissolve into nothingness as organizations.

What the New Soul Force or Psychic Energy is we may not at this time be able to explain, in words, but we have no fear but that we will know, for the Treasure Houses of Wisdom are being thrown wide open to all the world. The difficulty in the way of immediate and general illumination is that Soul Truths must be felt as inherent Life Forces before they can be realized by the consciousness, and this being a matter of individual soul progress, but few have reached this advanced state of receptivity.

All forces are inherently intelligent, and intelligence of positive or negative quality extends to all points and fills all space. Hitherto mankind have been conscious of but one universal, natural force, and that has been attraction, known to modern science as "gravity," or the tendency of the material to gravitate towards its overbalance.

Whether the movement is or is not towards the circumference or towards the center, the human consciousness has been held in thrall to the false idea that back of the universal movements are dead-weight motors.

The children of the Spirit World are taught first and foremost to express their inherent individuality. The children of Earth are for the most part echoes of parental ignorance, and their individuality is stifled whenever manifested.

KEY THOUGHTS.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

The past lives in the present only.

Time brings no sorrows that Time does not cure.

Things are expressions of the people's consciousness.

Immortality is a continual never-ending growth.

Eternal Youth is assured to whoever lives the Clean Life.

Matter is frozen spirit waiting to be melted by Divine Love.

You do not go anywhere after death; you are everywhere present.

Love is the Mother of all Virtues; hatred is the father of all crimes.

Always prepare for a blessing. Expect the blessing, and do not let it pass you by.

The mystic gives you the only wealth that is transferred to you in the life beyond.

The husband and wife should not leave home without a good-bye caress. It is a powerful protector.

Keep your mind pure with clean thoughts, and you will be healthy, happy and wise, and you can see the Angels.

Angels and devils are both products of the human species. All Happiness is involved in Goodness, and all evil in badness.

Not long ago, the press reports say, there were sixteen thousand inhabitants of England who saw three Angels in the sky, and around their heads were streamers bearing the word "Peace."

If you want to be a success in life, and not a failure, don't try to run the world, and don't try to run but one individual, and let that individual be yourself. If you attend strictly to this you will be a grand success. Something that will make the world take notice.

We have not penetrated very far into the Heart of Life. We are moved along by that activity we call "God," and we have found the certainty of Eternal Life, and we cull from everything we touch that of it which belongs to our needs, and give back to it what of us it needs. And the oncoming generations will be blessed by our passing.

Nothing counts in the ultimate but the Good.

Spirit is Life; the mortal is death.

Nineteen hundred will soon be out of its 'teens.

An evil thought is worse than a contagious disease.

What is Life? It is you; it is me; it is all that is!

When the being is properly adjusted, evil cannot touch us.

The only God that can save you is Infinite, Endless Intelligence.

The past and the future can only be known as the present.

Satisfaction belongs to the soul of things, not to the surface of things.

Love-and-Wisdom Intelligence makes the Good Woman and the Man.

The real thing to you is not always the reality, but what you imagine it to be. You are the Creator; the thing is your creature.

Doctrines and principles taught by agitators are laughed at by capitalists; there is but one thing to make them tremble: the thought that women will be united.

"How can a spirit be in two places at once?" asked the mortal. And the Angel answered: "All places are one to the Celestial Consciousness."

Dying does not make you any more nor any less. You are just the same after death as you were before. Change comes by growing: You can grow worse or you can grow better.

Everything Good and bad must come through evolution—growth. The Good that blesses, and the evil that afflicts mankind are both manufactured in human minds. As the thoughts are, so is the individual.

We impress all things with our soul-force and give them a species of life, that stamps them with a species of individuality of their own. Things really pain and grieve us, and speak a language that is intelligible to the Spiritual sensitive. There is the truth of poetry in these lines of Shakespeare:

"Find tongues in trees; books in the running brook;
Sermons in stones; and Good in everything."

VOICE OF PROPHECY

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

EARTH'S RELEASE

Earth, thou art now in thy Transition; soon
 Thou shalt receive God's best and noblest boon,
 Release from all thy anguish fierce and dire!
 Soon, weary Earth, Heaven's air thou shalt respire,
 While Angels throng around thee; thou shalt wake
 In Heaven's serene and ever blessed state
 Of Love and Freedom! Angels round thee throng,
 O Earth; they chant their happy-voiced song.
 Naught that is thine shall perish,—stately thrones
 And priestly dungeons,—these are but the bones
 Of that old perishable shape that dies
 And crumbles. O'er thy head Celestial skies Wreath the crowns of Light; with visions of Sweet Peace
 They fill thy breast, and give thy soul release.
 And we shall meet in Thy Divine Embrace
 Oh Love! Divinest Love!

Mother Earth is suffering the Birth Pangs of the New!

What shall the Harvest be? Joy through you to all the world!

The Salvation of the World is now wholly dependent upon receptivity to the Incoming New!

How much farther can Humanity reach out into the Unknown and grasp its wonders?
 There is no limit.

The World's Advance Thought is opening up a great Thought Road.

This is a good time to wash clean from all discords of whatsoever kind, and then the spirit is free to seek Celestial Directions.

We are soon to have a Spirit-Awakened Humanity, instead of an earth-bound Humanity, shut out from the realization of the Life and Liberty of the Spirit.

The first glimmerings of the Light of Peace
 are becoming visible!

Open wide the door of your being and let
 in the sunshine of Love, and all will be well!

God is your Love and your Wisdom!

God speaks to me through all Its tongues.

The only death there is is Ignorance of Life.

There is only One Religion—the Religion of Love!

The Good Time coming has come! Open the door!

The Earth will rejoice in all its parts! The long-sought-for is coming!

The New Day of Humanity's growing will be so bright and sunshiny that one will never miss the Way!

The first streakings of the Dawn of the New Age are just making their first little glimmer! It will spread rapidly!

A Blessing is being sent throughout the Heavens! And it shall light up the wise and the unwise! None shall escape!

In the past men went on the theory that Might was Right. Now they are beginning to discover that Right alone is Might.

The Old Age of Uniformity and Materialistic
 Sameness is now being replaced by the New Age of Individuality and Endless Variety.

The years nineteen eighteen, nineteen nineteen, and nineteen twenty will be the three greatest years the planet has ever witnessed!
 Progress will go kiting!

Who knows the Way of Harmony? Who ever found the Way of Life? Love is the Way, and whoever finds this Way will be the Lord of Earth that brings on the Millennium.

It will only be a short time until all Humanity will cease to eat animal flesh. The people of all Nations will wake up to the enormity of the flesh-eating traffic, and the moment they do, no one will eat any more flesh-food.

Your embryo-child is a living form of intelligence, though unborn. Speak to it daily, in the Silence the thoughts of Good you wish it to manifest in its future life. It is like wax while still in the embryo, and you can shape it to conform to your Higher Will.

This New Age is going to clean out all the filth of inharmony, and the world will be populated with a healthy, happy, harmonious, loving race! It shall bring us to see and live a state of harmony that death itself shall die and be no more!

PREPARING FOR DEATH

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

The only beneficial preparation one can make for death is to have the mind in a harmonious, peaceful condition and see all things as beautiful. To pass out of the flesh body with the mind in a disorderly, chaotic condition may engender a long period of unhappiness in spirit.

In fact, one with the mind in disorder does not and cannot enter Spirit Life, for that Life is the Realm of Joy, Peace and Happiness. And one who has not trained his mind to these Divine Attributes remains earth-bound. Not that any God relegates one to stay in chaos, but the spirit by the influence of its own predominant thought relegates itself to the plane of consciousness it is in harmony with.

The most intolerable disease that Humanity has to recover from is that of cruelty to animals. It is astonishing how few there are among the good folks who are really kind and considerate to animals. There are quite a number who are indifferently kind to animals; that is, they would not mistreat them; but it is few indeed who would put themselves out in the least to do for animals. But until mankind have grown in love to where they look upon animals as one of themselves, and treat them considerately as they would their own species, they will suffer and have torment.

The dogs on the battle fields are grandly doing the work of aiding the wounded soldiers, without money and without price, that the Red Cross is demanding millions of money to do. Yet the Red Cross has appropriated (according to the Christian Science Monitor) out of the funds given it to relieve suffering, a hundred thousand dollars to enable the doctors to cruelly torture the faithful and loving dogs.

One cannot have Liberty if they are dependent upon others. The more you can do for yourself, without the aid of others, the more Liberty you have. But no one can be independent except to a limited degree, because we are all dependent upon others for a great share of our wants. When we become wise enough to be entirely self-supporting (if this is possible) then we can be independent.

FOOD EDUCATION.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

While food does not absolutely determine character, yet to a very great extent it does determine character, or at least there is always a certain correspondence between the two. Animals live and fatten or deteriorate according to the nature of their food supply, and human beings are subject to the same rule, so physiological experts tell us.

But we will not consider the physiological expert. It is of the psychological aspect we would speak. Physiology treats of man merely as an animal. Metaphysics, psychology and psychometry treat of mind and spirit, intellect and emotion—of man in his process of evolution.

Our mind development depends on the thought atmosphere in which we exist: the prevalent public opinion, and habits and conditions of mind of those who associate with us, and influence us in our associations.

The food of the masses of the people is chosen partly by fashion or habit, and partly by necessity. More by these than by taste. They educate their tastes to meet these and their necessities.

WHAT OF THIS NEW DAY?

By an Angel of the Lord

The world is full of Beauty;
The globe is full of Light;
Love is the ruling Deity;
Right now displaces Might.

Only in Peace can rest abide.

To be at Peace with oneself is to worship God.

All days are Holy days when we live in Peace.

Then the Lord will bless you; the world will bless you; and then will one live in the blessedness of living.

Seek and you shall surely find that which gives continual Joy and Peace!

The Lord is over all! The Lord doeth Its Will in you when the mind is at Peace!

The Woman's Age has come! The world will be glad! All things will be made New! Cleanliness and Order will abound in all places! Jails and punishments will be transformed by Love! Divine Blessings will come through the Woman!

SELF-CONTROL NEEDED.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Humanity, almost without exception, are still infants in Self-Control. We waste our vital forces in all kinds of folly, destructive language, griefs, regrets, fault-finding, anger and all passions of the lower nature. There is no force in Nature that can be utilized until it is concentrated under control in some instrument. When a force is uncontrolled it becomes a destructive power. For instance, fire is one of the greatest blessings when under control, but uncontrolled it becomes very destructive.

The loving forces within the being when controlled for Good can do wonders, but they burn one up in wasteful passions. These passions crave destructive food elements—they demand liquor, tobacco, animal flesh, etc. These are craved because the lower nature wastes the forces of existence.

Divine Forces flow in to strengthen Divine purposes, and physical Immortality will be possible when all our works are Divine. Now, at the best, Divine Force finds but transient lodgment in the most advanced of the race.—From an editorial in the World's Advance Thought, December, 1896.

The term "God" cannot be applied to the All-Pervading, because the term is partial in its application, for when we say "God" we mean a man-made God—the God of the Mohammedan, the God of the Baptist or the Presbyterian or Catholic or the various Protestant sects. The term is misleading when applied to Infinite Intelligence. The Christ used the term as applied to inspired men. "Ye are Gods," he said to the Jews when they were stoning him for blasphemy, for claiming to be the "Son of God." There are innumerable Gods, as there are innumerable stars, but there is only One Universal, All-Inclusive Sun of Righteousness. The All-Wise, the Infinite Consciousness, cannot be understood. Present inspiration must determine the value of all old records.

People are not made Spiritualists by "conversion," but by the efforts of the individual to unfold his own spirit. When people are ready for Spiritualism they accept it without persuasion.

Harmony of Being means to be free from discords in spirit, mind and body.

CONSCIOUSNESS.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Consciousness is the measure of the person, or of institutions representing collections of men, for men's institutions have their bounding life-lines, as well as the mightiest beings above them, and each tribe, from microbes to Angels, has its communal or collective sphere of consciousness; its own world of moral and natural adaptations, whether the world be through organic cell, the church, the tribe, the nation or the planet, and the individual has no life, no movement, no being outside of it; the life-lines for him do not extend beyond; and who comes to widen those life-lines comes as a mortal foe to the soul imprisoned within them.

Thus there are as many Universes and Gods as there are different states or stages of moral and intellectual development.

Souls and their Universes grow together, like the egg in its shell. "Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad," is a saying that sounds the deepest depths of the mystery of being. When a lesser God feels the approach of a greater God, he first gets angry; his power diminishes as his ire increases, until at last he is swallowed up and absorbed by the greater God.

Were it not for these aggressive Gods of Superior Thought, progress would end; for whoever can fix boundaries around his fellow beings, and be the God of the realm as defined, it will be to them Infinity until a greater God appears that has a wider sphere of consciousness, which they, too, will finally absorb.

On the 27th of the month there will be sent out from the Home of the World's Advance Thought, a world-wide Healing Influence to heal the mentally and physically sick. All who desire to be healed, in any part of the world, should go by themselves and sit receptively and quietly in their respective homes at that time, and let the Lord bless them.

The greater the agony of the Old, the nearer is the Birth of the New. New births in the present stage of evolution cannot come forth without agony to the old.

Evil thoughts in one's mind when eating spells—a speedy d-e-a-t-h.

THE UNIVERSAL REPUBLIC.

SOUL COMMUNION FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS

PORTLAND, OREGON.

AMERICA!

Melodia rules thy destiny, O Land
Of coming years; O Empire wise and grand,
America! and thou at last shall be
The consecrated Home of Poetry,
The fairer Greece, adorned with Noblest Art,
And bathed in Sacred Love from God's Creatime Heart!

For thee, for thee, the wise Melodians throng
Even now, and chant in Heaven their morning song!

For thee and for thy sons methinks they sing;
They come, and Angel songs as offerings bring!

For thee and for thy race, methinks they cry:
"Love, Wisdom, Inspiration, Liberty!"—
The four Great Angels of the Coming Time,
To their Olympian goal lead on thy race sublime!

Thou art that rock-built Pharos that above
Earth's ocean lifts the Immortal Flame of Love!

E'en now thou shinest like a Beacon-Star,
Leading Earth's myriads o'er the deep afar!
Thou art the lost Atlantides that lay,
To ancient thought, beyond the waves away;
The New Jerusalem, the ancient Seer
Of Patmos saw, descending white and clear
From highest Heaven; the rich and wise
Cathay

Columbus sought, faith-guided on his way!

The Old, the New, the Future and the Past,
Meet and embrace, complete in thee at last!
Thou art the Crowning Flower of Earth and Time,

The destined Eden of Mankind Divine!

The microscope, a physical supplement to human sight, reveals to us a world hitherto unseen and by many unsuspected; so a supplementary psychical attainment, an intenser spiritual vibration, reached only by continuous effort on our part, will reveal to us the beauty and glory of another world, more real, harmonious and lasting than the one we daily contemplate.

MOTHERHOOD.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Wisdom ripens into Silence, as she grows more truly wise,
And she wears a mellow gladness in her heart
and in her eyes.

Wisdom ripens into Silence, and the lesson
she doth teach,
Is that Life is more than language, and that Thought is more than speech.

—Selected.

The most perfect phenomenon of human life is the embryotic development and evolution to perfect form of the human infant. The psychic development of Humanity has been extremely slow. The process of normal evolution from animal to human, and from human to a higher grade of human (the spiritual and beneficent) has been deranged owing to lack of knowledge and comprehension of the great power of the mother soul to build a fitting instrument for the expression of soul forces, and the lack of suitable environment for the mother.

That Humanity possesses so much tendency to upwardness and evolution in Celestialism is a demonstration of the Omnipresent Beneficence ever acting to overcome hindrances, and to perfect the unfoldment in all directions. At the source of life, at the source of structure, there is such damaging interference that it is a wonder that no more lives are not wretched malformations, physically and morally.

The careful selection of the best stock for increasing herds, and rigid compliance with the laws that experience has revealed to be requisite, have failed to educate mankind to corresponding carefulness in the reproduction of himself.

In woman's maternal function is demonstrated the high office of an intelligent motherhood to not only organize and build a fleshly tenement, but to combine enough psychic forces in the most delicate, susceptible and perfect instrument known—the nervous system of the human body.

Anti-natal impressions are often indelible.

The violent emotions of fear, anger, terror and grief have many times scarred lives with deplorable results; and many times caused idiocy. The beneficence of a calm, exhalted, tender and loving spirit presiding over the building of the brain and nerve system in anti-natal life is the most effective and far-reaching agency for bringing Humanity on toward a higher destiny—the mastership of soul force over matter and material environment.

The phonograph exhibits the persistence of the stored sound vibrations. The body, and the marvelous brain structure, the throne of soul force, exhibits the persistence of the stored vibrations of thought and feeling imparted by the mother to the child in embryo.

This New Dispensation will bring a New Education on the birth and unfoldment of the human family, and as the human becomes more perfected, it will raise all below it.

Mothers who have "lost" their children would no longer mourn, but would rejoice, if they could see the spirit children we have seen who were educated in Heaven. There is nothing in the way of raising children on Earth that can begin to compare with the Angelic methods of unfolding the minds and hearts of these lovely, heavenly cherubs.

INDIVIDUALITY

Mr. Christian L. Lange, the Secretary-General of the Interparliamentary Union, in his work, Organization de la Conference de la Paix (Organization of the Peace Conference), says that a Universal Republic would be a drawback to the growth of the Individuality of the various Nations.

The display of Individuality (except in exceedingly rare instances, by persons and Nations) has been something that has met with severe condemnation by those who have refused to accept the New, and sustained the old civilization of uniformity. The display of Individuality has been considered the worst of crimes by society in all countries.

The Universal Republic, instead of preventing the growth of the Individuality of Nations, would break up all the conditions that now stand in the way of the display of Individuality by persons and Nations. The greater the freedom of expression and action along harmonious lines in the world, the greater becomes the display of Individuality.

SOCIETY SHOULD ELEVATE.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Is it right to hang a man? Why should we hang one for a crime? These are proper questions, and of great importance to the welfare and progress of the race, and they should be answered.

Intelligent men think that it is the best deterrent to crime. But is it? A fact to be kept in mind is that the hardened criminal does not love life. No tender chord, no great ambition, no love of Humanity makes his life good and desirable. He must be judged by his own standard in estimating the effect of any penalty upon himself.

Then, too, society has generated and operated the forces which have impelled the man to a life of crime. The criminal is neither responsible for his ancestors nor for his environment. Society gave these to him. He is the product of its own workings.

The strangling of the criminal is not punishment; it is done for revenge; and it has a coarse, brutalizing effect upon society. We force the condition that develops the microbe of immorality. We hasten its fevered growth, and when the victim is morally prostrate we hitch the noose and swing him into the Great Eternal. And for what? To reform or heal him? No; not that. To frighten those who have no moral sense. We appeal to those who have only physical fear, and it only degrades them, for an appeal to the lower passions always degrades. The business of society should be to elevate, and not degrade by all our punitive methods.

In nothing is the crass materialism of the dying age more manifest than in the ignorant belief that the resultant product of an induced disease in an animal (created from horrible torment and agony) can give health to a man. Health means sanity. Mens sana in corpore sano (A healthy mind in a healthy body). This was the motto of the true physicians (Spiritual Teachers) of old.

The vivisectioning doctors show their ignorance when they study disease in order to produce health. (The study of disease increases disease, for disease is but an effect of discordant mental causes. To give consumption, leprosy, the plague, to dogs, monkeys, etc., can never cure these diseases in human beings, for the cure of disease is the transformation of discordant mental processes into harmony,

SPIRITUAL MEDIUMSHIP.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

We hear much now-a-days about "my unfoldment," "my mediumship," etc. Spiritual development is to unfold your own good spirit by daily good thoughts and acts—it is this that constitutes the at-one-ment with Divine Angels, on the principle that "birds of a kind flock together." And this makes you a medium for the Angels who can do their work on Earth through you, as an intermediary, because your atmosphere is pure and does not repel them. Then spiritual phenomena are the accompaniment of your daily life, not because you seek them, but for the reason that they manifest just as the rose and its perfume is the natural evolution of the bush that has grown it.

To seek to unfold spiritual phenomena and be a medium without a "change of mind and heart," preparatory to such unfoldment, will not bring satisfaction. And so-called "spiritual unfoldment" and "mediumship" that is not the natural evolution of true spiritual unfoldment (cultivation of inherent Goodness) is but the shadow of the real thing, and Truth, Peace, Harmony are offspring of the Light, and not of the shadow.

You may make connection with certain spirit friends by going to a medium, but you are all the time, consciously or unconsciously, making connection with discarnate spirits, who are attracted to you by your thoughts—like attracting like. The Spirit World is Your Self—Your Self locates you in exact harmony with the thoughts you think. Millions of ignorant, discarnate spirits are wandering aimlessly around in the outer darkness of their own consciousness, trying to get somewhere. But in spirit it is not "going" but loving that enables you to realize the glories of that life.

The father said: "We never abuse a cow. No dairyman, with the idea of making good, should expect results if he makes his cows victims of his temper. We have learned that the best and largest quantity of milk will come from the contented cow. Every cow in our herd is a pet. All of them have learned to expect nothing but kindness. That, I believe, is the real reason why we have succeeded."

ENACT IT INTO LAW.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

Mrs. Alfred J. Eno, President of the Women's Citizens' League of Queen's Borough, New York City, has a bill before the New York Legislature, the purpose of which is to do away with idleness among both rich and poor. Here are some of its clauses:

"That the Governor be authorized to require every able-bodied person between 18 and 50 years of age—not then engaged in any lawful business—to register his name—and any other information with the Clerk of the County in which such person may be. The Governor shall thereupon assign or cause to be assigned—such persons to occupation. For a period which shall not exceed six continuous months."

"Failure of such persons to register, shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

"Any person failing or refusing to do or continue to do the work assigned to him—shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $500 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or be fined and imprisoned."

In an interview with a reporter of the New York World she said that she was led to introduce this bill because of tale after tale being told her of men who could not be induced to support their families. Drink and idleness were the causes of this state of affairs. So she is working for "Universal Employment" and "Bone-Dry Prohibition."

We cannot too highly commend the work of Mrs. Eno. Universal Employment would certainly solve many problems that now vex us. Idleness is certainly the source of most of the crime, corruption and wrong thinking and doing that keeps this world in discord and turmoil. And the idle rich are just as guilty in creating these evils as the idle poor.

Idleness leads to self-indulgence in bad practices, and especially in liquor drinking; and liquor drinking debauches the being, and takes away all thought of one's responsibility to himself, his family and the world.

Anger is one of the worst poisons that the consciousness can take to itself. It not only poisons the one who manifests it, but it poisons everyone he or she comes in contact with, and it poisons the whole atmosphere of the home.

SPIRITUALISM.

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

More than thirty years ago Rev. Heber Newton contributed to the New York Herald what he designated: "A Bird's Eye View of Spiritualism," though it covered several columns of the Herald. Millions, today, might read it with profit, though it presents few new points for the readers of the Companion Papers. It is one of the fairest and most comprehensive essays we have read on this subject. We quote a few sentences:

"Spiritualism is here, whatever we make of it in the broad light of this nineteenth century of the Christian Era, and the hard fact, when we ponder it well, is certainly significant. Dr. Hilbert, writing on a theory of apparitions, felt called upon, in his opening paragraph, to apologize for seriously considering such a subject. Writers, like Lecky, have accustomed us to think of such notions as childish things, which the Western world has forever put away. Has not the age of reason turned the daylight in upon the ghost world and shown its fantastic forms to be the moonshine of the era of night? So some have hoped, and others have feared,—all agreeing in the fact that science has made an end of all the superstition, and that ghosts have gone the way of the witches."

Yet here today is Spiritualism; walking unabashed in the light of the modern world; displaying a vitality that is anything but spectral; enrolling a vast host of followers, who make no confession of faith—they know; organizing a vast movement that is spreading through all lands, building itself a body after most approved modern methods; forming societies; editing newspapers; creating a voluminous literature; challenging investigation; taking on scientific airs; and claiming for itself that it is to be the Religion of the Future. An astounding fact. Of what? That the fools are not all dead yet, or that "Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and revealed them to babes."

All things are first "nothing" before they become something: first a thought in the mind, a penciling on paper, a model in matter—the pattern for the manufacturer to go by; then great manufactures all over the world that bring the reality to completion for all its inhabitants.

RATS WISER THAN MEN

Investigators of mining conditions and the peculiar dangers to which miners are subjected recently have taken much interest in the practice of Western gold miners to make pets of the rats which commonly infest mines. On the mother lode vein of California it has been found that the miners invariably feed the rats and take care of them, believing that the rodents are a source of protection against accidents. This is due, the men say, to the instinct of the rats, which warns them when a tunnel is unsafe. And when the rats leave a tunnel it is almost impossible to get the miners to work there. This recalls the belief among sailors that rats will leave a doomed ship. The miners also have found that rats are much more susceptible than humans to the dangerous gases that so often cause loss of life in the mines. Long before the miners themselves are affected by these gases the rats become sick and show symptoms of distress. So the men keep close watch on the rats' good health.

Miners have had belief in the occult since the beginning of time. This is easily explained because of their strange employment. The folklore of every land has narrations of the occult originating among miners, in which ghostly gnomes roam about deserted mines and uncover fortunes. Also the men become obsessed with the idea that they hear the blows of picks wielded by spirit hands, and many other such ideas.—Evening Telegram.

Your thoughts bring you spirits in harmony with them. If your thoughts are clean, good and true, then your associating spirits are good and true.

The most sensible bequest made by a wealthy man is that of Moses Loria, a Hebrew, in Milan, Italy, who left his five millions of dollars to that city, to found an institution to supply work to worthy, unemployed persons.

You will never get the blessings you expect to get, until you appreciate the blessings you now have.

Until one has reached the point that knows the Immortality of all that is, he is lacking in faith, and cannot be taught Spiritual Truth.

Dr. George W. Carey is one of the great inspired souls of this New Age.

SELF-ENSLAVED

Lucy A. Rose Mallory

When a woman is heard to disclaim rights or privileges for which others of her sex are pleading as for life, it is safe to draw conclusions inimical to her heart and judgment. She is either the possessor of every luxury or she is selfishly opposed to the welfare of millions of her kind, burdened by disabilities of which she knows nothing and cares nothing about. When such a woman declares she has all the rights she wants, and others shall have no more if she can prevent it, she should take a trip over to China, and ask a Chinese woman to show her feet. She will not. Her feet are never seen. They are covered even at night, so hideous is their deformity, and from birth to death they are racked with pain. Yet she clings to the deformity and badge of slavery, because the custom of ages so enforces.

It is needless to institute comparisons between one class of women and the other. Both are in bondage: one of the feet, and the other of the head.

The word death and all that it stands for should be wiped out of the human mind; and Life—Eternal Life—should fill its place. Death has from the beginning been the most terrible burden that Humanity has had to come in contact with, and it all comes from a lack of understanding. If we had been taught from the beginning that death is simply a new birth, it would have saved us from the greatest sorrow, the greatest dread that life has produced.

Buddha says: "A wicked man who reproaches a virtuous one is like one who looks up and spits at Heaven—the spittle soils not the Heaven, but comes back and defiles his own person. So, again, he is like one who flings dirt at another, when the wind throws it back on himself. The virtuous one cannot be hurt; the misery that the other would inflict comes back on himself." But we do not agree to this, for a truly virtuous person—one clean in mind and body would never be thus attacked. A truly virtuous person could not attract inharmony in any form. All manner of people and all things would love such an individual.

To worship one must be in the spirit consciousness.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Coincident with the splendid service being rendered by thousands of dogs in this great war, there has suddenly appeared, both in England and this country, a strange outbreak of hostility toward the dog. Not a few individuals, and many newspapers, are disclosing their total inability to appreciate what the friendship and companionship of the dog has meant to mankind from time immemorial. There is a clamor for his destruction. Now he is the chief cause of the decline in sheep-raising. Now he is the fatal carrier of disease germs. Now he is the annual consumer of millions of dollars' worth of food. What crimes remain to be charged against him we do not know. But those who know him need have no fear that at this late day mankind is suddenly to awaken to the fact that, in the dog, it has been cherishing a foe in its own household. There are those of us who, if we had our choice, would much prefer to spend our eternity with certain dogs we have known than with many a human being it has been our lot to meet. We can only account for this outburst of animosity against the dog on the ground that every special manifestation of goodness in the world arouses the opposing spirit of evil. The praise so widely being given the dog just now for his devotion, intelligence and service amid the appalling perils of war, has evidently stirred the counter passions of hate and cruelty in the breasts of his foes.—Our Dumb Animals.

It is the vivisectors—those who torture dogs in senseless and cruel experiments—who are the originators of the false accusations against them, and who try to influence legislators to institute laws for the destruction of these faithful and lovable animals. If they can make the people believe that dogs are "worthless curs," they can get numbers of them at little or no cost to practice their fiendish tortures upon.

Peace of Mind is an infallible wrinkle preventer and eradicator (no charges). Every worry adds to the wrinkles. It is easier to prevent them than to eradicate them after they come. In the New Age, wrinkles will be unknown, for the secret of Eternal Youth will be discovered.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY BIBLE

We give a most cordial welcome to our table to The Twentieth Century Bible, by Hon. Robert Addison Dague, of Creston, Iowa. It is a Bible for the New Era. Were some great cataclysm to swallow up all the Bibles of the world, and but this Bible were left, its common-sense texts would do more to illuminate the minds of men with Truth than all the Bibles of the past. All the Bibles of the past have some good wheat, but mixed in with a great deal of worthless chaff. Dague's Bible is pure wheat, with the chaff eliminated. It is a book of only 94 pages that you can carry in your pocket, but it will make great your soul if you inspire the truths it sets forth. Price, 75 cents, postpaid. For sale by the Progressive Thinker, 106 Loomis Street, Chicago, Ill.

The Red Cross came before the public with the plea of aid to the soldiers wounded in battle, and when they gave one hundred thousand dollars of the money they had collected from the general public for the sustaining of a vivisection hell—to encourage suffering, cruelty and torment, instead of relieving pain and torment, the plea they advanced to obtain the money—it was a misappropriation of the funds. But a very small portion of the amount would have been subscribed had it been known that any portion of it was to be so used. The Red Cross should not be confounded with the Red Star, which is a genuine Humanitarian organization, that devotes itself to the relief of the wounded in battle, both the soldiers and horses.

A child undesired, unloved before its birth, is the most pitiable object in the Universe. It is robbed of its birthright, and can find here only a life of unhappiness. It cannot attract love and good will, for the mother robbed it before birth of all qualities that can attract the Good in life.

The relation of spirit to matter is as the relation of the material object to its shadow. The spirit is the real, and the material is its exact shadow-counterpart in all particulars. Matter only moves just as spirit moves.

There is no separateness in Life (the Spirit). All are One. And the Good you do to others you first do to yourself.

A GOOD WORK

The 1917 Year-Book of the Ethical and Humane Education Department of the Oakland S. P. C. A., California, is just to hand, showing a great gain in the work accomplished, and the eager response from both teachers and pupils in the public schools as they become informed concerning the sufferings of animals is most gratifying.

An additional phase of the work just instituted is mentioned:

"In the developing of the Department's work the importance and value of gathering the children into an organization for the purpose of promoting among them further thought and study along humane Education lines and thus preparing them for some real service in the humane cause was recognized. In conformity with this idea, "The Universal Fellowship" connected with the Department, has been formed. This is an organization of children pledged to work as they can to promote justice and kindness to all living beings; who are interested in studying their animal friends that they may better understand their humble brethren who often suffer great misery at the hands of man because they are so unknown and so misunderstood."

Mr. and Miss Latham, who founded and sustain this splendid work, may well receive the thanks of all humanitarians. Besides which they have entrusted the execution of their great idea to a most capable humanitarian, Mrs. Beulah Gronlund.—The Open Door.

JOHN W. RING

John W. Ring was ordained a Spiritualist Minister, August 1, 1897, at Galveston, Texas, where he served the First Spiritualist Church for ten years. A magnificent edifice was secured during his ministry. At Long Beach, California, "The Universal Temple" was erected for his work in that city. At San Diego, California, "The Progressive Spiritualist Church" was built and endowed by Mrs. Sophia Meyran, of Pittsburgh, Pa., for his ministrations there; and he has served that congregation four years.

He is now the minister of the First Spiritualist Church of Minneapolis, Minn. The church sends out a Quarterly, edited by Mr. Ring. He is one of the great Souls who enlighten the world.

The Lord cannot bless the flesh-eater.

BIRTHPLACE OF THE GOLDEN AGE

I have found on the Pacific Coast more broad-minded and mellow, many-sided characters among representative people of all creeds and classes than I have ever found elsewhere. And I believe the long-dreamed-of Golden Age will first shine upon the land of the "Golden Gate." My reasons are briefly these: First, the Pacific Coast, all the way from Mexico to our northern boundary line, is favored over every other locality on Earth with scenery, climate and soil for the development of human character. Second, its present population is largely composed of a class whose characters have been moulded and modified by a moral, mental and spiritual atmosphere free from old-time forms and despotisms, which have cramped and deformed Humanity in all older countries.—Prof. James G. Clark, the Poet-Singer.

There have been times in which I declare to you Heaven was more real than Earth; in which my children that were gone spoke more plainly to me than my children that were with me. These glimpses of the future state are a great comfort and consolation to all those who are looking for development of a perfect manhood. It is generally admitted from the very beginning of things this world has been open to the influence of spirits. That false notions have arisen during all ages concerning Spiritualism does not prove its fallacy by any means.—Henry Ward Beecher.

With all the unspeakable agony in war-torn Europe, it is appalling to think that the Red Cross, formerly the symbol of mercy, should be devoting money given for relief to vivisectional experimentation. The Red Cross has received money contributed by all classes of people, many of whom are opposed to the allopathic school of medicine; they have given this money believing that it would be devoted exclusively to the help and relief of war sufferers, and it is a betrayal of their trust to divert a portion of these contributions for the use of vivisectioning experimenters.—Living Tissue.

THEY ARE KIND TO ANIMALS

The first boy that in generations of Moros had ever been known to be kind to an animal was the Moro boy who first became a Scout. There are now quite a few Moro Boy Scouts, and they are carrying out the Scout teachings by being kind to animals.

The sixth Scout law says: "A Scout is kind. He is a friend to animals. He will not hurt any living creature needlessly, but will strive to save and protect all harmless life."

This kindness is not merely the thoughtfulness that eases a horse from the pain of a badly fitting harness or gives food and drink to an animal that is in need, but also that which keeps a boy from throwing a stone at a cat or tying a tin-can on a dog's tail. If a boy does not prove his thoughtfulness and friendship for animals, it is quite certain that he never will be really helpful to his comrades or to the men, women and children who may need his care.—James E. West, Chief Scout Executive, Boy Scouts of America, in Our Dumb Animals.

"The race today is under the surgeon's knife" is a striking phrase that appeared recently in the newspapers. It is retribution, according to Dr. Lajapt Rai, who in a remarkable address at the Messiah Forum told his audience that the orientals in India considered the great war as a retribution upon the white race for the evils of its civilization, one of which is cruelty to animals.—Living Tissue, Boston, Mass.

We take this from a letter from a friend: "The World's Advance Thought comes to us again with Love-Lighted messages of Advanced Thoughts from the Angelic Realm of Nature, which is the New Jerusalem descending from God out of Heaven. The elevating power of such sentiments is being felt by all the Nations. As soon as the people become endowed with these sentiments they will have power to command their lives, and they will live in the Spirit of Love where no evil can enter, and the world will live in Peace and Harmony."

After receiving the first prize at the United States Government test of dairies, in Los Angeles, the owners, a Swiss and his son, declared they believed the kindly treatment of their animals was the important factor of their success.

THE GOOD AND THE TRUE DO NOT PERISH.

SUGGESTIONS

Life never graduates.

Heaven is Permanent Happiness. But we cannot have Heaven when we are discontented and cultivate dislike for anyone or anything. We are constructing it when we are kind and considerate to all forms of Life. A very little inharmony will take away our happiness.

It is a great mistake to suppose that there is any separation between the material and the Spiritual. The Spiritual is the Substance, and the material is its shadow. Now you can no more separate Spiritual Life from material life than you can separate the thing from its shadow.

MEETINGS.

The following meetings for soul culture and spiritual unfoldment are held regularly every week in the Home of The World's Advance Thought, 515 Morrison street, Portland, Ore.
